

Application for ASC Toronto Panel

PLEASE NOTE:

ASC applicants must:

- authorize the Empanelment Committee to make an independent and confidential inquiry about them with the Law Society of Ontario to confirm information provided below.
- provide the following information from LawPro:
 - confirmation that he or she has the basic errors and omissions insurance in place and the date of expiry of that policy.
 - a claims history showing:
 - any claims that have been made against him or her in the last ten years and whether any of those claims remain outstanding.
 - any claim payments that have been made by or on behalf of LawPro as a result of an error or omission over the last ten years.
- Applications will be scored based on the written information that is provided by each applicant and should therefore be thoroughly and carefully completed.
- Be confident that they can give advice on property, spousal support, child support, parenting and FRO issues
- Continuance on the ASC Toronto roster for subsequent years is not guaranteed for successful applicants. ASC panelists may not be asked to continue to provide services if issues arise with respect to either their availability or their conduct on the roster.
- If you require accommodation, please advise the ASC Empanelment Coordinator.
- Send completed Application packages and any scanned attachment by email to: ascproject@copyfamilylaw.com

PLEASE NOTE THAT ATTENDANCE AT THE INFORMATION NIGHT AND TRAINING AND THE SUBMISSION OF THIS APPLICATION DOES NOT RESULT IN A SPOT ON THE ROSTER. WE WILL EVALUATE ALL APPLICATIONS AND ADVISE SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES OF ANY OFFERS FOR A POSITION.
